This book is not for everyone. I DID NOT LIKE IT but I didn't give it a bad rating for that because there are some who would enjoy this book. The romance section is a bit much and my mother-in-law would not have appreciated this gift. However there are some over the top aunts and uncles of mine who would have found the raunchy and crude jokes funny. So just make sure the person you buy it for will not be offended by that type of humor.

This is an absolutely delightful book! It is full of wonderful and ironic humor which is both hysterically funny and insightful. The honesty and wisdom of Mr. Witte's observations (posed as a "birthday quiz") are oddly comforting to those of us who are near to either side of "F-Day"(Fifty!). I hope Mr. Witte continues to write in this vein. I highly recommend this book.

I just received this book and was really hoping that it was filled with funny one-liners given all the good reviews. I have to say that it is very disappointing. None are very funny and pretty boring or cheesy. I thought the other reviewer who kept the book rather than give it as a gift was exaggerating. Unfortunately, I too will not be including it in the gift bag. Unless you are easily amused, this is not something I would recommend.

Not only is this book "laugh outloud funny," it is the perfect "stocking stuffer" gift for all of my baby-boomer friends who turn the big 5-0 this year!

The advertising led me to think this would be a hilarious gag gift for my friend. When I received the book and looked through it, I was highly disappointed. 99% of it is recycled old jokes and rather lame at that. Too many sexual innuendos (and I am not a prude), but I thought it would be more inclusive of the "old age" life in general.

Bought this as a gag gift for a good friend who turned 50. While at his party, we passed the book around and different groups of people found different passages that caused lots of laughter. Not sure if the laughter was book induced or beer induced but either way, it was the hit of the party!

Any true baby boomer will get a kick out of this book for its humor and quotability. Even those of us who haven't hit the big 5-0 have begun to say "You know, 50 ain't that old." This book makes it easier to accept what is now barely middle age.

This will be the talk of the party, a surprise 50th birthday party for my daughter. Thank you so much
