Customer Reviews

We purchased our departments K-9 from Tony a few years ago. Having several other K-9 throughout the years from different company's, I can say without a doubt Tonys K9 has out performed them hands down. As far as the book goes it shows the dedication and hard work Tony has put into his business. If you are truly passionate about K-9 then you will enjoy reading

Tony's book.

Very helpful guide to help get a program started! I hope it works for me.

Tony Smith's business selling and training police dogs. His services may indeed be as great as he says, but to claim this as a comprehensive manual to developing your own K-9 unit when it is nothing but an advertisement is borderline fraud. The information that is presented is extremely basic and simplistic. There was nothing in here that I did not already know, even with my very limited experience with police K-9s. I notice the other reviewers all know Tony personally and have bought dogs or trained with him, so I am guessing that he does know his business in selecting and training dogs, and does offer good service, but for someone who has not dealt with him and was expecting a knowledgeable helpful book on setting up a K-9 unit, it was a huge disappointment.
